

SLOAN MARKETPLACE LLC

SC Argus™

Thank you for using Sloan Marketplace's Application Programming Interface ("API") for the remote monitoring and control of Sloan Marketplace IOT Products installed in various commercial, government and higher-education facilities. By accessing or using our API as a developer for business management system or service agency vendors or as a Sloan Marketplace vendor or business partner, you are agreeing to the terms below. Collectively, we refer to the terms below, any additional terms within any accompanying API documentation, and any applicable policies and guidelines as either "the Terms" or "this Agreement." You agree to comply with the Terms. So please read all the Terms carefully. If you use the API as an interface to, or in conjunction with other Sloan Marketplace products or services, then the terms for those other products or services also apply.

These Terms of Use govern your access to and use of the Site, including Site content, accounts, Design Tools, and other online functionality. They do not govern the purchase or sale of Sloan products or related services except to the limited extent expressly stated herein. Any purchase or sale of Sloan products or related services is governed by Sloan's Terms of Sale, the applicable order confirmation, any applicable product-specific or transaction-specific terms, and, as applicable, Sloan's Credit Terms and Limited Warranty. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between these Terms of Use and Sloan's Terms of Sale, Credit Terms, Limited Warranty, order confirmation, or other commercial terms applicable to a purchase or sale, those commercial terms shall control with respect to the purchase, sale, payment, credit, delivery, return, cancellation, warranty, and product-related subject matter they address.

IT IS IMPORTANT THAT YOU READ CAREFULLY AND UNDERSTAND THIS AGREEMENT. BY CLICKING THE "ACCEPT" BUTTON DURING ACCOUNT SETUP, YOU AGREE TO BE BOUND BY THESE TERMS. IF YOU DO NOT AGREE WITH ALL TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT AND DO NOT AGREE TO BE BOUND BY THIS AGREEMENT, YOU WILL NOT BE PERMITTED TO DOWNLOAD, ACCESS OR USE THE API.

Section 1: Account and Registration

a. Accepting the Terms

You may not use the API and may not accept the Terms if (a) you are not of legal age to form a binding contract with Sloan Marketplace, or (b) you are a person barred from using or receiving the API under the applicable laws of the United States or other countries including the country in which you are resident or from which you use the API. If you make a purchase through the Site, that purchase is also subject to Sloan's Terms of Sale and the other commercial terms applicable to the transaction. If there is a conflict between these Terms of Use and the Terms of Sale or other applicable commercial terms, the Terms of Sale or other applicable commercial terms shall control for purchase-related matters.

b. Entity Level Acceptance

If you are using the API on behalf of an entity, you represent and warrant that you have authority to bind that entity to the Terms and by accepting the Terms, you are doing so on behalf of that entity (and all references to "you" in the Terms refer to that entity).

c. Registration

In order to access the API you may be required to provide certain information (such as identification or contact details) as part of the registration process for the API, or as part of your continued use of the API. Any registration information you give to Sloan Marketplace will always be accurate and up to date and you'll inform us promptly of any updates. The API may be provided in a document located on a secure website and downloaded by you.

Section 2: Using Our API

a. Your Authorized Users

You will require your authorized users to comply with (and not knowingly enable them to violate) applicable law, regulation, and the Terms.

b. Compliance with Law, Third Party Rights, and Other Sloan Marketplace Terms of Service

You will comply with all applicable law, regulation, and third-party rights. You will not use the API to encourage or promote illegal activity or violation of third-party rights. You will not violate any other terms of service or agreements with Sloan Marketplace.

c. Permitted Access

You will only access the API by the means described in the API documentation. If Sloan Marketplace assigns you developer credentials (e.g. client IDs), you must use them with the API. You will not misrepresent or mask your identity when using the API.

d. API Limitations

Sloan Marketplace sets and enforces limits on your use of the API (e.g. limiting the number of API requests that you may make), in our sole discretion. You agree to, and will not attempt to circumvent, such limitations. If you would like to use the API beyond these limits, you must obtain Sloan Marketplace's express consent (and Sloan Marketplace may decline such request or condition acceptance on your agreement to additional terms and/or charges for that use).

e. Open-Source Software

Some of the software required by or included in the API may be offered under an open-source license. Open-source software licenses constitute separate written agreements. To the limited extent the open-source software license expressly supersedes the Terms, the open-source license instead sets forth your agreement with Sloan Marketplace for the applicable open-source software. Should we utilize third party messaging protocols in the API, you also agree to abide by the terms and conditions of any agreements that govern the use of such protocols.

f. Communication with Sloan Marketplace

We may send you certain communications in connection with your use of the API. Please review the applicable API documentation for more information.

g. Feedback

If you provide feedback or suggestions (collectively "Feedback") about the API, then we may use such information for any purpose and without obligation or compensation to you. You also irrevocably assign to Sloan Marketplace, for no additional consideration, all right, title and interest in and to all Feedback, including, without limitation, all copyrights, patents, trade secrets, and other intellectual property rights associated with the Feedback, and you agree to execute all written instruments as may be necessary to perfect title to such intellectual property rights to Sloan Marketplace and generally to do all things necessary to aid Sloan Marketplace to obtain and enforce a patent or other form of legal protection for the intellectual property rights associated with the Feedback for no additional compensation (other than the coverage of reasonable expenses).

h. Non-Exclusivity

The Terms are non-exclusive. You acknowledge that Sloan Marketplace may develop products or services that may compete with any other products or services.

Section 3: Your API Clients

a. API Clients and Monitoring

The API is designed to help you develop or enhance your websites, programs and applications (“API Client(s)”) so that there can be access to the Sloan Marketplace Subscription Services through your own network for remote monitoring and control of Sloan Marketplace IOT Products installed in commercial, government and higher-education facilities. YOU AGREE THAT SLOAN MARKETPLACE MAY MONITOR USE OF THE API TO ENSURE QUALITY, IMPROVE SLOAN MARKETPLACE PRODUCTS AND SERVICES, AND VERIFY YOUR COMPLIANCE WITH THE TERMS. This monitoring may include Sloan Marketplace accessing and using your API Clients, for example, to identify security issues that could affect Sloan Marketplace or its users. You will not interfere with this monitoring. Sloan Marketplace may use any technical means to overcome such interference. Sloan Marketplace may suspend access to the API by you or your API Client without notice if we reasonably believe that you are in violation of the Terms.

b. Security

You will use all reasonable efforts to protect any user information collected by your API Clients, including personally identifiable information (“PII”), from unauthorized access or use and will promptly report to your users any unauthorized access or use of such information to the extent required by applicable law.

c. Ownership

Sloan Marketplace does not acquire ownership in your API Clients, and by using our API, you do not acquire ownership of any rights in our API or the content that is accessed through our API.

d. User Privacy and API Clients

You will comply with all applicable privacy laws and regulations including those applying to PII. You will provide and adhere to a privacy policy for your API Client that clearly and accurately describes to users of your API Client what user information you collect and how you use and share such information with Sloan Marketplace and third parties.

Section 4: Prohibitions and Confidentiality

a. API Prohibitions

When using the API, you may not (or allow those acting on your behalf to):

- 1.Sub-license the API for use by a third party. Consequently, you will not create an API Client that functions substantially the same as the API and offer it for use by third parties.

b. Confidential Matters

1. Developer credentials (such as passwords, keys, and client IDs) are intended to be used by you and identify your API Client. You will keep your credentials confidential and make reasonable efforts to prevent and discourage other API Clients from using your credentials.

2. Our communications to you and our API may contain Sloan Marketplace confidential information. Sloan Marketplace confidential information includes any materials, communications, and information that are marked confidential or that would normally be considered confidential under the circumstances. If you receive any such information, then you will not disclose it to any third party without Sloan Marketplace's prior written consent. Sloan Marketplace confidential information does not include information that you independently developed, that was rightfully given to you by a third party without confidentiality obligation, or that becomes public through no fault of your own. You may disclose Sloan Marketplace confidential information when compelled to do so by law if you provide us reasonable prior notice, unless a court orders that we not receive notice.

Section 5: Content

a. Content Accessible Through our API

Our API may contain some third-party content (such as text, images, videos, audio, or software). This content is the sole responsibility of the person that makes it available. We may sometimes review content to determine whether it is illegal or violates our policies or the Terms, and we may remove or refuse to display content. Finally, content accessible through our API may be subject to intellectual property rights, and, if so, you may not use it unless you are licensed to do so by the owner of that content or are otherwise permitted by law. Your access to the content provided by the API may be restricted, limited, or filtered in accordance with applicable law, regulation, and policy.

b. Submission of Content

The API may allow the submission of content. Sloan Marketplace does not acquire any ownership of any intellectual property rights in the content that you submit to our API through your API Client, except as expressly provided in the Terms or the Sloan Marketplace Terms of Service SC Argus™ Software-as-a-Service. For the sole purpose of enabling Sloan Marketplace to provide, secure, and improve the API (and the related service(s)) and only in accordance with the Sloan Marketplace Privacy Policy, you hereby grant Sloan Marketplace a perpetual, irrevocable, worldwide, sublicensable, royalty-free, and non-exclusive license to Use content submitted, posted, or displayed to or from the API through your API Client. "Use" means use, host, store, modify, communicate, and publish. Before you submit content to our API through your API Client, you will ensure that you have the necessary rights (including the necessary rights from your authorized users) to grant us the license. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, this Section 5(b) does not apply to any of the Product Data that is solely owned by Sloan Marketplace pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Sloan Marketplace Terms of Service SC Argus™ Software-as-a-Service.

c. Retrieval of Content

When a user's non-public content is obtained through the API, you may not expose that content to other users or to third parties without explicit opt-in consent from that user.

d. Prohibitions on Content

Unless expressly permitted by the content owner or by applicable law, you will not, and will not permit your authorized users or others acting on your behalf to do the following with content returned from the API:

1. Scrape, build databases, or otherwise create permanent copies of such content, or keep cached copies longer than permitted by the cache header;

Section 6: Brand Features; Attribution

a. Brand Features

"Brand Features" is defined as the trade names, trademarks, service marks, logos, domain names, and other distinctive brand features of each party. Except where expressly stated, the Terms do not grant either party any right, title, or interest in or to the other party's Brand Features. All use by you of Sloan Marketplace's Brand Features (including any goodwill associated therewith) will inure to the sole benefit of Sloan Marketplace.

b. Attribution

You agree to display any attribution(s) required by Sloan Marketplace as described in the documentation for the API. Section 10: Governing Law and Disputes

For the avoidance of doubt, this Section does not apply to disputes arising out of or relating to the purchase, sale, ordering, pricing, shipment, delivery, payment, return, cancellation, warranty, credit terms, collection, or use of Sloan products or related services. Those disputes are governed by Sloan's Terms of Sale, Credit Terms, Limited Warranty, applicable order confirmation, or other commercial terms applicable to the transaction.

a. Dispute Resolution. Any dispute, controversy or claim arising under, out of, or relating to these Terms and/or any Purchase Orders, Order Confirmations or other documents entered into between the Parties in connection with the purchase of Products by you (the "Dispute"), including, without limitation, the formation, validity, binding effect, interpretation, performance, breach or termination, as well as non-contractual claims, shall, if possible, be finally settled amicably by negotiation between the parties ("Internal Dispute Resolution").

b. Mediation. If the Parties are unable to reach an amicable solution to the Dispute pursuant to the Internal Dispute Resolution process within fifteen (15) days from the first notice of Dispute, then the Dispute shall be submitted to mediation, in Illinois, under the auspices of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"), in accordance with the AAA's Mediation Procedures and, if applicable, Supplementary Rules for the Resolution of Patent Disputes then in effect. Each Party shall bear its own cost of mediation and shall share mediation costs equally. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Parties shall not be required to first attempt to resolve a Dispute through mediation if such Dispute concerns an allegation that a Party has violated (or threatens to violate, or poses an imminent risk of violating): (i) any federally protected Intellectual Property Rights; (ii) any claims pertaining to or arising out of any warranty issue; or (iii) any restrictive covenants contained in this Agreement, if any.

c. Arbitration. If the Parties are unable to resolve any Dispute by mediation within sixty (60) days after the notice of Dispute, the Parties shall submit the Dispute to binding arbitration before a single arbitrator agreeable to both Parties, or if the Parties cannot agree, then an arbitrator shall be appointed by the AAA. Any arbitrator chosen hereunder shall have reasonable educational training, and industry experience relevant to the particular Dispute. All proceedings will be conducted at a suitable location chosen by the arbitrator in Cook County, Illinois. Judgment upon the arbitrator's award shall be final and binding and may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. The arbitration proceeding shall be conducted in English. Subject to Section 29 below, the arbitrator has the right to award or include in his or her award any relief which he or she deems proper, including, without limitation, money damages (with interest on unpaid amounts from the date due), specific performance, injunctive relief, and attorneys' fees and costs, provided that the arbitrator may not declare any Trademark generic or otherwise invalid or, award any punitive, exemplary, or multiple damages against any Party. Each Party further agrees that, in any arbitration proceeding, each must submit or file any claim that would constitute a compulsory counterclaim (as defined by Rule 13 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure) within the same proceeding as the claim to which it relates. Any claim, which is not submitted or filed as required, is forever barred. For any Dispute in which the amount in controversy is Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) or less, the arbitration shall be conducted on a documents-only basis without oral hearings or depositions, unless the arbitrator determines that an oral hearing is necessary for a fair resolution of the Dispute. The Parties agree that, in any arbitration, Buyer may, at its own election and subject to its own discretion, elect the following limitations and rules governing discovery: (i) requests for documents shall be limited to documents that are directly relevant to significant issues in the case or to the case's outcome; shall be restricted in terms of time frame, subject matter and persons or entities to which the requests pertain; and shall not include broad phraseology such as "all documents directly or indirectly related to"; (ii) there shall be no interrogatories or requests to admit; (iii) with respect to any electronic discovery, the Parties agree that: (A) production of electronic documents need only be from sources used in the ordinary course of business. No such documents shall be required to be produced from back-up servers, tapes or other media; (B) the production of electronic documents shall normally be made on the basis of generally available technology in a searchable format which is usable by the Party receiving the documents and convenient and economical for the producing Party. Absent a showing of compelling need, the Parties need not produce metadata, with the exception of header fields for email correspondence; (C) the description of custodians from whom electronic documents may be collected shall be narrowly tailored to include only those individuals whose electronic documents may reasonably be expected to contain evidence that is material to the dispute; and (D) where the costs and burdens of electronic discovery are disproportionate to the nature of the dispute or to the amount in controversy, or to the relevance of the materials requested, the arbitrator shall either deny such requests or order disclosure on condition that the requesting Party advance the reasonable cost of production to the other side, subject to allocation of costs in the final award as provided herein; (iv) each side may take three discovery depositions and each side's depositions are to consume no more than a total of eighteen (18) hours, provided that the arbitrator may authorize additional depositions or extend the time limits upon a showing that the complexity of the issues, the amount in controversy, or other circumstances warrant additional depositions; (v) there are to be no speaking objections at the depositions, except to preserve privilege; and (vi) the total period for the taking of depositions shall not exceed six weeks unless extended by the arbitrator for good cause. The provisions of this Section are intended to benefit and bind certain third party non-signatories and will continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding this Agreement's expiration or termination.

d. Court Carveout. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sloan may bring any action or proceeding in any court of competent jurisdiction to collect amounts owed, enforce payment obligations, enforce or perfect any security interest or lien right, recover or repossess Products or collateral, obtain injunctive or equitable relief, protect or enforce intellectual property rights, prevent unauthorized use or disclosure of confidential information, or obtain any provisional, emergency, or creditor remedy. Buyer irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction of the state and federal courts located in Cook County, Illinois, for any such action or proceeding and waives any objection to personal jurisdiction, venue, or forum non conveniens in such courts.

e. Limitation of Action. No cause of action arising under these Terms may be maintained against Sloan unless brought before the expiration of one year after the act, transaction or occurrence upon which such action is based or the expiration of one (1) year after you become aware of facts or circumstances reasonably indicating that you may have a claim against Sloan hereunder, whichever occurs sooner, and that any action not brought within this period shall be barred as a claim, counterclaim, defense, or set-off.

f. Confidentiality of Dispute Resolution Proceedings. The Parties agree that all dispute resolution proceedings including but not limited to Internal Dispute Resolution, mediation, and arbitration, shall be strictly confidential. Without limiting the foregoing, the Parties agree that the following shall be deemed Confidential Information: (i) the existence, content, and results of any dispute resolution proceeding, including the fact that a Dispute has been asserted or is being resolved; (ii) all documents, testimony, evidence, and information exchanged or produced in connection with any dispute resolution proceeding; (iii) all settlement discussions, proposals, offers, and agreements; (iv) all mediator or arbitrator deliberations, rulings, decisions, and awards; (v) the identities of witnesses and experts; and (vi) all written submissions, briefs, memoranda, and correspondence related to the dispute resolution proceeding. Each Party shall take reasonable measures to ensure that its representatives, witnesses, experts, consultants, and advisors maintain the confidentiality of such information. The confidentiality obligations of this subsection shall not prevent a Party from disclosing information: (A) to the extent required by applicable law, regulation, court order, or governmental authority, provided that the disclosing Party provides the other Party with prompt written notice of such requirement and cooperates in any effort to obtain a protective order or confidential treatment; (B) to the Party's attorneys, accountants, auditors, insurers, and other professional advisors who have a need to know and who are bound by confidentiality obligations; (C) to the extent necessary to enforce or challenge an arbitration award or settlement agreement in a judicial proceeding, provided that the Party seeking disclosure first petitions the court for a protective order; (D) if both Parties provide prior written consent to the disclosure; or (E) to the extent the information is already in the public domain through no breach of this Agreement. Any breach of this confidentiality provision may be enjoined by any court of competent jurisdiction, and the breaching Party shall be liable for all damages, costs, and attorneys' fees incurred by the non-breaching Party as a result of such breach.

g. Class, Collective, and Representative Action Waiver. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, you agree that any Dispute shall be brought and resolved only on an individual basis. You hereby waive any right to bring, maintain, participate in, or recover relief in any class, collective, consolidated, representative, private-attorney-general, or similar proceeding, whether in arbitration or in court. The arbitrator may not consolidate more than one person's claims and may not otherwise preside over any class, collective, consolidated, representative, private-attorney-general, or similar proceeding.

h. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. THIS WAIVER APPLIES SOLELY AND EXCLUSIVELY TO THOSE COURT PROCEEDINGS EXPRESSLY PERMITTED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION PROCEEDINGS TO SEEK EMERGENCY INJUNCTIVE OR EQUITABLE RELIEF, TO ENFORCE AN ARBITRAL AWARD, OR TO PURSUE CLAIMS CARVED OUT FROM THE MANDATORY DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCESS. FOR THE AVOIDANCE OF DOUBT, THIS WAIVER DOES NOT EXPAND THE CATEGORIES OF DISPUTES THAT MAY BE BROUGHT IN COURT, AND ALL OTHER DISPUTES REMAIN SUBJECT TO THE ARBITRATION PROVISIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT. TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, EACH PARTY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN CONNECTION WITH ANY SUCH PERMITTED COURT PROCEEDING. Each Party certifies that (a) this waiver is made voluntarily and with full understanding of its implications, (b) no Representative of the other Party has represented that such other Party would not seek to enforce this waiver, and (c) each Party has had the opportunity to consult with counsel regarding this waiver.

Section 11: General Provisions

We may unilaterally modify the Terms or any portion thereof to at any time, to among other reasons, reflect changes to the law or changes to our API. You should look at the Terms regularly. We'll post notice of modifications to these Terms available at API Terms of Use, within the documentation for the API, and/or otherwise on the <https://www.sloan.com> web site. All modifications, including any modifications addressing new functions for the API or modifications made for legal reasons will be effective immediately unless otherwise stated in the notice. We are not liable for failure or delay in performance to the extent caused by circumstances beyond our reasonable control. If you do not comply with the Terms, and Sloan Marketplace does not take action right away, this does not mean that Sloan Marketplace is giving up any rights that it may have (such as taking action in the future). If it turns out that a particular term is not enforceable, this will not affect any other terms. The Terms are the entire agreement between you and Sloan Marketplace relating to its subject and supersede any prior or contemporaneous agreements on that subject. You agree that except as provided for in Section 15(b) of the Sloan Marketplace Terms of Service SC ArgusTM Software-as-a-Service, any dispute, claim or controversy involving this API Use Agreement shall be resolved through binding arbitration in accordance with Section 10 of this API Use Agreement. This API Use Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Illinois, without reference to its principles of conflicts of law.
