Payment processing through the Site is subject to the payment terms presented at checkout and to Sloan's Terms of Sale, Credit Terms, and applicable order confirmation. To the extent this Section conflicts with Sloan's Terms of Sale, Credit Terms, or applicable order confirmation, those commercial terms shall control. Further, you agree not to dispute the payment with your credit card company or bank, so long as the transaction corresponds to the terms provided to you at the time you place your order.

18. GOVERNING LAW AND DISPUTES

Any dispute between you and Sloan arising out of or relating to these Terms, the Privacy Policy, the Site or its Content shall be governed by, and will be construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Illinois, U.S.A., without regard to choice of law principles. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section does not apply to disputes arising out of or relating to the purchase, sale, ordering, pricing, shipment, delivery, payment, return, cancellation, warranty, credit terms, collection, or use of Sloan products or related services. Those disputes are governed by Sloan's Terms of Sale, Credit Terms, Limited Warranty, applicable order confirmation, or other commercial terms applicable to the transaction.

a. Dispute Resolution. Any dispute, controversy or claim arising under, out of, or relating to these Terms and/or any Purchase Orders, Order Confirmations or other documents entered into between the Parties in connection with the purchase of Products by you (the "Dispute"), including, without limitation, the formation, validity, binding effect, interpretation, performance, breach or termination, as well as non-contractual claims, shall, if possible, be finally settled amicably by negotiation between the parties ("Internal Dispute Resolution").

b. Mediation. If the Parties are unable to reach an amicable solution to the Dispute pursuant to the Internal Dispute Resolution process within fifteen (15) days from the first notice of Dispute, then the Dispute shall be submitted to mediation, in Illinois, under the auspices of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"), in accordance with the AAA's Mediation Procedures and, if applicable, Supplementary Rules for the Resolution of Patent Disputes then in effect. Each Party shall bear its own cost of mediation and shall share mediation costs equally. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Parties shall not be required to first attempt to resolve a Dispute through mediation if such Dispute concerns an allegation that a Party has violated (or threatens to violate, or poses an imminent risk of violating): (i) any federally protected Intellectual Property Rights; (ii) any claims pertaining to or arising out of any warranty issue; or (iii) any restrictive covenants contained in this Agreement, if any.

c. Arbitration. If the Parties are unable to resolve any Dispute by mediation within sixty (60) days after the notice of Dispute, the Parties shall submit the Dispute to binding arbitration before a single arbitrator agreeable to both Parties, or if the Parties cannot agree, then an arbitrator shall be appointed by the AAA. Any arbitrator chosen hereunder shall have reasonable educational training, and industry experience relevant to the particular Dispute. All proceedings will be conducted at a suitable location chosen by the arbitrator in Cook County, Illinois. Judgment upon the arbitrator's award shall be final and binding and may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. The arbitration proceeding shall be conducted in English. Subject to Section 29 below, the arbitrator has the right to award or include in his or her award any relief which he or she deems proper, including, without limitation, money damages (with interest on unpaid amounts from the date due), specific performance, injunctive relief, and attorneys' fees and costs, provided that the arbitrator may not declare any Trademark generic or otherwise invalid or, award any punitive, exemplary, or multiple damages against any Party. Each Party further agrees that, in any arbitration proceeding, each must submit or file any claim that would constitute a compulsory counterclaim (as defined by Rule 13 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure) within the same proceeding as the claim to which it relates. Any claim, which is not submitted or filed as required, is forever barred. For any Dispute in which the amount in controversy is Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) or less, the arbitration shall be conducted on a documents-only basis without oral hearings or depositions, unless the arbitrator determines that an oral hearing is necessary for a fair resolution of the Dispute. The Parties agree that, in any arbitration, Buyer may, at its own election and subject to its own discretion, elect the following limitations and rules governing discovery: (i) requests for documents shall be limited to documents that are directly relevant to significant issues in the case or to the case's outcome; shall be restricted in terms of time frame, subject matter and persons or entities to which the requests pertain; and shall not include broad phraseology such as "all documents directly or indirectly related to"; (ii) there shall be no interrogatories or requests to admit; (iii) with respect to any electronic discovery, the Parties agree that: (A) production of electronic documents need only be from sources used in the ordinary course of business. No such documents shall be required to be produced from back-up servers, tapes or other media; (B) the production of electronic documents shall normally be made on the basis of generally available technology in a searchable format which is usable by the Party receiving the documents and convenient and economical for the producing Party. Absent a showing of compelling need, the Parties need not produce metadata, with the exception of header fields for email correspondence; (C) the description of custodians from whom electronic documents may be collected shall be narrowly tailored to include only those individuals whose electronic documents may reasonably be expected to contain evidence that is material to the dispute; and (D) where the costs and burdens of electronic discovery are disproportionate to the nature of the dispute or to the amount in controversy, or to the relevance of the materials requested, the arbitrator shall either deny such requests or order disclosure on condition that the requesting Party advance the reasonable cost of production to the other side, subject to allocation of costs in the final award as provided herein; (iv) each side may take three discovery depositions and each side's depositions are to consume no more than a total of eighteen (18) hours, provided that the arbitrator may authorize additional depositions or extend the time limits upon a showing that the complexity of the issues, the amount in controversy, or other circumstances warrant additional depositions; (v) there are to be no speaking objections at the depositions, except to preserve privilege; and (vi) the total period for the taking of depositions shall not exceed six weeks unless extended by the arbitrator for good cause. The provisions of this Section are intended to benefit and bind certain third party non-signatories and will continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding this Agreement's expiration or termination.

d. Court Carveout. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sloan may bring any action or proceeding in any court of competent jurisdiction to collect amounts owed, enforce payment obligations, enforce or perfect any security interest or lien right, recover or repossess Products or collateral, obtain injunctive or equitable relief, protect or enforce intellectual property rights, prevent unauthorized use or disclosure of confidential information, or obtain any provisional, emergency, or creditor remedy. Buyer irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction of the state and federal courts located in Cook County, Illinois, for any such action or proceeding and waives any objection to personal jurisdiction, venue, or forum non conveniens in such courts.

e. Limitation of Action. No cause of action arising under these Terms may be maintained against Sloan unless brought before the expiration of one year after the act, transaction or occurrence upon which such action is based or the expiration of one (1) year after you become aware of facts or circumstances reasonably indicating that you may have a claim against Sloan hereunder, whichever occurs sooner, and that any action not brought within this period shall be barred as a claim, counterclaim, defense, or set-off.

f. Confidentiality of Dispute Resolution Proceedings. The Parties agree that all dispute resolution proceedings including but not limited to Internal Dispute Resolution, mediation, and arbitration, shall be strictly confidential. Without limiting the foregoing, the Parties agree that the following shall be deemed Confidential Information: (i) the existence, content, and results of any dispute resolution proceeding, including the fact that a Dispute has been asserted or is being resolved; (ii) all documents, testimony, evidence, and information exchanged or produced in connection with any dispute resolution proceeding; (iii) all settlement discussions, proposals, offers, and agreements; (iv) all mediator or arbitrator deliberations, rulings, decisions, and awards; (v) the identities of witnesses and experts; and (vi) all written submissions, briefs, memoranda, and correspondence related to the dispute resolution proceeding. Each Party shall take reasonable measures to ensure that its representatives, witnesses, experts, consultants, and advisors maintain the confidentiality of such information. The confidentiality obligations of this subsection shall not prevent a Party from disclosing information: (A) to the extent required by applicable law, regulation, court order, or governmental authority, provided that the disclosing Party provides the other Party with prompt written notice of such requirement and cooperates in any effort to obtain a protective order or confidential treatment; (B) to the Party's attorneys, accountants, auditors, insurers, and other professional advisors who have a need to know and who are bound by confidentiality obligations; (C) to the extent necessary to enforce or challenge an arbitration award or settlement agreement in a judicial proceeding, provided that the Party seeking disclosure first petitions the court for a protective order; (D) if both Parties provide prior written consent to the disclosure; or (E) to the extent the information is already in the public domain through no breach of this Agreement. Any breach of this confidentiality provision may be enjoined by any court of competent jurisdiction, and the breaching Party shall be liable for all damages, costs, and attorneys' fees incurred by the non-breaching Party as a result of such breach.

g. Class, Collective, and Representative Action Waiver. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, you agree that any Dispute shall be brought and resolved only on an individual basis. You hereby waive any right to bring, maintain, participate in, or recover relief in any class, collective, consolidated, representative, private-attorney-general, or similar proceeding, whether in arbitration or in court. The arbitrator may not consolidate more than one person's claims and may not otherwise preside over any class, collective, consolidated, representative, private-attorney-general, or similar proceeding.

h. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. THIS WAIVER APPLIES SOLELY AND EXCLUSIVELY TO THOSE COURT PROCEEDINGS EXPRESSLY PERMITTED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION PROCEEDINGS TO SEEK EMERGENCY INJUNCTIVE OR EQUITABLE RELIEF, TO ENFORCE AN ARBITRAL AWARD, OR TO PURSUE CLAIMS CARVEDOUT FROM THE MANDATORY DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCESS. FOR THE AVOIDANCE OF DOUBT, THIS WAIVER DOES NOT EXPAND THE CATEGORIES OF DISPUTES THAT MAY BE BROUGHT IN COURT, AND ALL OTHER DISPUTES REMAIN SUBJECT TO THE ARBITRATION PROVISIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT. TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, EACH PARTY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN CONNECTION WITH ANY SUCH PERMITTED COURT PROCEEDING. Each Party certifies that (a) this waiver is made voluntarily and with full understanding of its implications, (b) no Representative of the other Party has represented that such other Party would not seek to enforce this waiver, and (c) each Party has had the opportunity to consult with counsel regarding this waiver.
